The Power of You(th)

Training course | 31/10/2023–14/02/2024 | in Athens, Greece; and Châtillon sur Indre, France

Main activities: The learning pathway was based on the eight key competences of the European framework, which defines the competences that citizens need for their personal development, their social integration, the practice of active citizenship and professional integration in a society based on knowledge, and on three complementary levels:

- Acquisition of new knowledge;
- Development of transversal skills such as problem-solving, creative thinking and communication;
- Adoption of cooperative and participative attitudes.

Main outcomes: They have acquired tools and strategies that will enhance their effectiveness as mentors to young people:

- Making them aware of their own knowledge, their talents and their skills;
- By developing attitudes and skills such as motivation, self-confidence and resilience;
- By helping them to convert their potential into opportunities and to see their future positively.
